Gospel Reflection

Jesus says in today's Gospel that "Whoever lives the truth comes to the light, so that his works may be clearly seen as done in God" (John 3:21).

Our parish wants to do everything in the light, so hungry souls can see Jesus living through us. Without His light, souls who need Jesus can't see that He lives in our parish, in our tabernacle.

Already more than halfway through Lent, the Church bids us rejoice! Laetare Sunday is a day of light. Jesus gave purpose and power to human suffering. "In the Lord your labor is not in vain" (1 Corinthians 15:58). When you support our Catholic Ministry Appeal, you help your neighbors find His light in the darkness and hope when it's needed most. May God be with you.

Divine Mercy

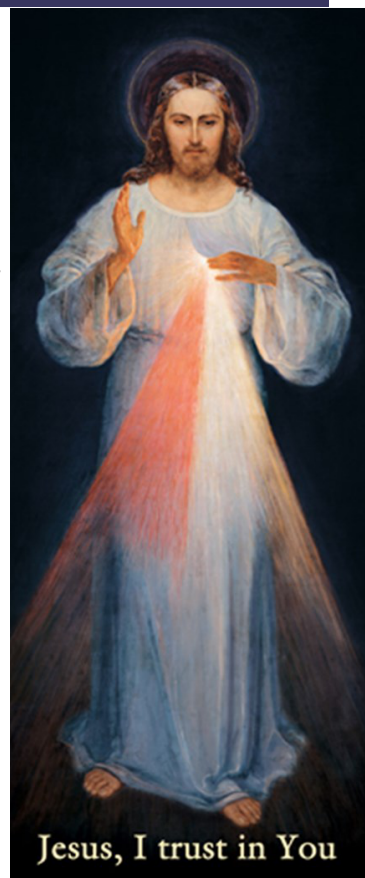

“Then I saw the Blessed Virgin, unspeakably beautiful. She came down from the altar to my kneeler, held me close to herself and said to me, I am Mother to you all, thanks to the unfathomable mercy of God. Most pleasing to me is that soul which faithfully carries out the will of God.” (Diary, 449)

“In the evening, when I was praying, the Mother of God told me, ‘Your lives must be like Mine: quiet and hidden, in unceasing union with God, pleading for humanity and preparing the world for the second coming of God.’” (Diary, 625)

The best way to learn how to trust is to learn from someone’s example. Mother Mary is the ultimate example of trust. She did not fear; she gave her fiat, her “yes” when she could do nothing but place her trust in what the Lord was telling her would happen. She is a gift that God gave to us as a mother, a creature like us, because He knew we would be afraid of Him after the fall in the Garden of Eden.” Fr. Chris Alar, MIC (Understanding Divine Mercy.)

Reflection: Trust is shown by accepting the help that is offered. Trust our guide, Mary, to bring us to Jesus. -“To Jesus through Mary”. Mary’s heart is always united with Jesus’ heart. Ask Mary to help you.

Jesus, I trust in You. King of Mercy, guide my soul.
Mother of Mercy, pray for us.
