Gospel Reflection

The beginning of today's Gospel reminds us to break our alabaster jar for Jesus. Whatever is precious is nothing compared to Him. Please support our Catholic Ministry Appeal this week. Like the woman broke the costliest of perfumes to anoint Christ, be not afraid to anoint Him lavishly with your gifts. Our community needs you. When you anoint our local Church with your perfume, you anoint Christ, the Church's head!

Thank you for your continued generosity. Every gift makes a difference in the ministries of the Diocese of St. Petersburg.

Scan the QR code or visit dosp.org/catholicministryappeal to make your gift today! Make sure to choose Sacred Heart Pinellas Park as your parish.

Divine Mercy

“Novena to The Divine Mercy which Jesus instructed me to write down and make before the Feast of Mercy. It begins on Good Friday. I desire that during these nine days you bring souls to the fountain of My mercy, that they may draw therefrom strength and refreshment and whatever grace they need in the hardships of life, and especially at the hour of death. On each day you will bring to My Heart a different group of souls, and you will immerse them in this ocean of My mercy, and I will bring all these souls into the house of My Father.” (Diary, 1209)

“The novena to the Divine Mercy is different from other novenas because it is the only one we have in the Catholic Church that is not based on our intentions, but rather on God’s intentions. This novena was given directly to St. Faustina by Jesus with His specific intentions. It began on Good Friday and finished nine days later on the Saturday before Divine Mercy Sunday.” Fr. Chris Alar, MIC: (Understanding Divine Mercy)

Reflection: While this novena isn’t required to obtain the graces of Divine Mercy Sunday, it is a good way to prepare. It is a powerful channel of grace given by God, prayed on ordinary Rosary beads. Jesus has attached many promises to it.

Jesus, I trust in You. King of Mercy, guide my soul. Mother of Mercy, pray for us.
