Gospel Reflection

In today's Gospel, after rising from the dead, Jesus told his disciples, "Everything written about me in the law of Moses and in the prophets and psalms must be fulfilled" (Luke 24:44). There is not one aspect of God's plan that is not fulfilled in Christ. Our job as His parish is to show the world where certainty can be found. Without Christ, life offers anything but certainty. The Gospel can change everything. Jesus trusted our parish to be "witnesses of these things" (Luke 24:48). We need your help to do it! Please support our Catholic Ministry Appeal and help us help others see the nail-marks in His hands and feet with faith. Help us help people find the one place where certainty can be found and that, through Jesus' wounds, one day all our sorrows will be transformed into new life.

Divine Mercy

“Souls who spread the honor of my mercy I shield through their entire lives as a tender mother her infant, and at the hour of their death I will not be a Judge for them, but a Merciful Savior. At the last hour, a soul has nothing with which to defend itself except My mercy. Happy is the soul that during its lifetime immersed itself in the Fountain of Mercy, because justice will have no hold on it.”

(Diary, 1075)

“There is nothing that man needs more than Divine Mercy - that love which is benevolent, which is compassionate, which raises man above his weakness to the infinite heights of the holiness of God.” - Pope John Paul, II

Reflection: Dear Lord, Jesus, knowing that You are all Love and all Mercy, I will dedicate myself to do whatever it takes to spread devotion to your infallible mercy. I will happily immerse myself in the Fountain of Mercy during my lifetime, understanding that justice has no hold on my soul.

Jesus, I trust in You.

King of Mercy, guide my soul.

Mother of Mercy, pray for us.
