World Mission Sunday

Celebrated every year on the second-to-last Sunday of October, World Mission Sunday is the day when Catholics around the world unite to support the missionary work of the Church. Established by Pope Pius XI in 1926, it remains the only annual global collection that directly supports the 1,124 mission territories where the Church is young, struggling, or persecuted. On this day, every parish, in every diocese, in every country, joins in prayer and giving to ensure that missionaries can continue their vital work—building churches, forming priests, supporting catechists, and serving communities in need.

Mass Intentions for 2026

Of course, our Lord always hears the prayers we offer for others, but some find special meaning in having a Mass offered for a specific intention. We have opened the 2026 Mass Book. Please be reasonable and limit the number of intentions you request at this time so that others will also be able to have their requests honored. If you are able, coming to the office is the most efficient way to reserve a Mass as it allows you to immediately see what dates are open.

All Souls Day Mass of Remembrance:

The annual All Souls Day Mass of Remembrance for those who died during the past year will be held Wednesday November 5th at 6:15pm. We invite you to write in the names of your relatives, friends, and loved ones who are deceased in the Book of Remembrance. This book will be displayed in the Sanctuary of the Church during the month of November.

His Heart Society Thanksgiving Collection

On the weekend of November 8-9, His Heart Society will be distributing food collection bags after each Mass with a list of what is needed for Thanksgiving. Please return the filled bags to the church the weekend of November 15-16. Thank you for your generosity!

Congratulations!

Congratulations to Raymon and Claudia on the baptism of their daughter Camila (left) and to Louie-Antony and Rebecca on the baptism of their son Azriel. The couples are godparents for each other's children. May God continue to bless your families with his grace.

Congratulations to our parishioners Shane & Avery Westbrook, pictured here after their nuptial mass last Saturday. May God bless and sustain your vows and your love for each other forever!

Vocation Spotlight

Austin Smith

Austin Smith grew up in Brandon, Florida, and has attended his home parish of Nativity Catholic Church since he was very young. Before entering seminary, he attended Jesuit High School in Tampa and felt the call to be a priest the summer before his junior year of high school while sitting in solitude and silence.

After graduating, Austin moved to Nashville for two years where he ministered to teens in middle school and high school with a group called the Love Good Apprenticeship Program. While in Nashville, his calling to priesthood was deepened, and after a year at Ave Maria university, he joined the seminary in the fall of 2020.

Studying and praying in seminary is a blessing, but outside of these activities, he enjoys shenanigans with friends, watching and playing sports, working out, reading fiction, adventuring, eating, and listening and analyzing music.

What attracts him to priesthood most is the idea of being a spiritual father, and being able to hear confessions.

Abundance Holy Hour

In 2004, Pope Saint John Paul II blessed six monstrances to be used around the world for Eucharistic Adoration, inviting the faithful to pray for an increase in vocations.

One of these, known in the U.S. as the "Vocations Monstrance," was entrusted to Serra International to travel to parishes across North America. We were blessed to welcome this special monstrance in our diocese, uniting in prayer for vocations to the priesthood and consecrated life during the monthly Abundance Holy Hour.

The Abundance Holy Hour is hosted once a month by the Serra Club, at the St. Jude the Apostle Cathedral where we gather as a Diocese to pray for an abundance of vocations to the priesthood and religious life. The next Holy Hour will be on Wednesday, October 22, at 6:30 p.m.
