Catholic Ministry Appeal

Jesus was the genuine article, the real deal. He practiced what he preached, and the Beatitudes delivered during his Sermon on the Mount were his guide for living. Jesus lived them, offering comfort, satisfying hunger, extending mercy, bringing peace. He also lived the persecution and insults. The spiritual qualities the Beatitudes enumerate are a road map of sorts. Live according to these blessings, and you are living a life that is pleasing to the Heavenly Father, one that will lead to him. Up until now, the Jews had the 10 Commandments to keep them on the path to God. Jesus is now giving them the eight Beatitudes.

It won't be easy. Jesus warns that others will "insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you [falsely] because of me." But this is cause for rejoicing, "for your reward will be great in heaven." This life is preparation for the next. Its suffering is transient; the joy we experience with God the Father is eternal. Its blessings will pale in comparison to the blessings of everlasting life.

Let us pray that we live this life in a way that will lead us to God in the next. May we offer blessings to the poor, hungry, mourning, and persecuted among us through support of the Catholic Ministry Appeal so that they may see God's face in their affliction.

Parish Bible Study

The Tuesday morning bible study group will be studying "Return" by Father John Burns. We will begin this Lenten study on Feb. 10th so that we are finished with the six week study by Easter. We have books available for $10 each. We will show a video that is 7 minutes long at each class. Everyone is invited to the Marian room on the back side of the church. Class runs from 9 am until 10:15 am.

Congratulations!

Congratulations to the 33 young disciples that received the Sacrament of Confirmation through the prayer and anointing of our Bishop, Most Reverend Gregory L. Parkes, this past Sunday at the 11:30am Mass. May the gifts of the Holy Spirit strengthen you, guide you, and inspire you as you discern how to apply your Catholic Faith to your life, now and in the future.

Lent at Sacred Heart

Ash Wednesday

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, February 18. Mass will be offered at:

- 8:15am Mass (school Mass with distribution of ashes)

Campaña para los Ministerios Católicos

Jesús era genuino; practicaba lo que predicaba y las Bienaventuranzas del Sermón de la Montaña eran su guía para vivir. Jesús las vivió, ofreciendo consuelo, saciando el hambre, extendiendo su misericordia y trayendo la paz. También vivió la persecución y los insultos. Las cualidades espirituales que enumeran las bienaventuranzas son una especie de mapa. Vive de acuerdo con estas bendiciones y estarás viviendo una vida que agrada al Padre Celestial, una vida que te lleve a él. Hasta ahora, los judíos tenían los diez mandamientos para mantenerlos en el camino hacia Dios. Ahora, Jesús les está dando ocho bienaventuranzas.

No será fácil. Jesús advierte que otros «Los insultarán y perseguirán, y dirán toda clase de mal contra ustedes [falsamente] por mi causa». Pero esto es motivo de alegría, «porque su recompensa será grande en el cielo». Esta vida es una preparación para la próxima. Su sufrimiento es transitorio; la alegría que experimentamos con Dios Padre es eterna. Sus bendiciones palidecerán en comparación con las bendiciones de la vida eterna.

Oremos para que vivamos esta vida de una manera que nos lleve a Dios en la próxima. Ofrezcamos bendiciones a los pobres, hambrientos, afligidos y perseguidos entre nosotros a través del apoyo de la Campaña para los Ministerios Católicos para que puedan ver el rostro de Dios en su aflicción.
