MINISTRY FAIR

Sunday, March 2, 2014 After ALL Masses

Parish Center will be set up starting on Friday evening around 6 pm and finish on Saturday morning at 10am. Tables will not be moved around as much as two years ago. We will work within the table arrangement presently in place.

EACH ministry will be responsible for setting up their table with information as we did two years ago. Jan will present this at the workshop.

Hospitality will be providing coffee, juice, etc. for the fair.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS

Parish Council will be narrating the Stations on Friday, March 15th. It is a wonderful spiritual experience for the council. Let's go to the fish fry then to church for the stations.

GENERAL DISCUSSION ISSUES

Altar Servers – Father would like to see a young married couple take over the training and scheduling of the altar servers. We are lacking in consistency of the servers – some too young, too fidgety, etc on the altar. They are a distraction to the congregation. David Ciofani is currently training and Cathy Burger is doing the schedule.

Website – Father and Karla are working on a new updated site.

Music - we discussed the new music for the Gloria, the tempo at the 4pm Mass, Men's Schola group and their place in our music ministry, and our favorite topic - the TV screens for church.

Ushers – All agree they are more visible and identifiable during Mass. Council like the gold color!

Names for Bulletin – list of names we suggested for special “thanks” in the bulletins.

Movies - Guy has a friend connected to the theaters at Parkside and may be able to arrange private showings for the new Christian movies to be released soon – Noah’s Ark and Son of God. This would be a great family night out.

Mitzi mentioned putting together a parish cookbook for a fundraiser.....Something to think about.

Next Council meeting – March 3rd. Most likely in the Retreat House.
